County Arboretum, Atascadero, California was the site of numerous ranches that of "Lucky" Baldwin, who had a Comstock Under gold strike. It was the Queen Anne Cottage shown in the photo was destroyed from 1909 when Baldwin the State of California and the purchased the property and restored its gardens and buildings. The arboretum is divided into an Australian, a South African, a Mediterranean, and an Oriental collection, each featuring the plant life of an area of the world with a climate similar to that of Southern California. On the palm frond (foreground) sits a male yellow-headed blackbird, his head and chest orange-yellow and his body and wings black.
